

Many different grazing animals can share the same pasture. A grazing animal is one that eats grass. A pasture is a field of grass where farmers let their animals graze.

You can use AGCO tractors to help take care of your animals. You can use your tractor to put out bales and feed for them to eat, clean out the pens they stay in and plant the grain that they eat.

AGCO[®]
TRACTORS